

WOMEN MAKE FINE DISPLAY AT FAIR

EXHIBITS OUTNUMBER AND EXCEL ALL OTHERS.

Attractions Which Appeal to the Heart and Mind as Well as to the Eye.

With a larger display than ever and attractions that appeal to the heart and mind, the women's building of the District fair opened this morning. Just to the right of the main entrance is the booth of the Chattanooga French War Orphan society, under the management of Mrs. C. C. Nottingham, chairman of the society. In the booth is a mother with a babe in her arms typical of poverty, and two small children by her side.

In charming contrast with this is the flower booth, with huge potted ferns and bright-colored geraniums. A little removed from this booth and nearer the center is the Godmothers' association exhibit. The booth is diamond-shaped and is covered with the United States colors. Their display consists of novelties of the war, Miss Margaret Ochs, the president, is assisted by a number of the girl members of the association.

In the Red Cross booth is a figure clothed in a pair of Red Cross pajamas and bandaged with the various kinds of bandages: head bandage, triangular bandage, pneumonia jacket, and around the abdomen is what is known in the workrooms as the many-tailed bandage.

The canteen workers have the booth next to the Red Cross, and have a very attractive poster with white surface, blue letters and red crosses in the middle. Mrs. T. H. McClure is chairman of this work, and will be assisted at the booth by the different members during the week.

Occupying the center of the room near the main entrance is a large booth of the American Library association. Overhead hangs any number of official posters, all making appeals for books for the soldiers. The special display consists of scrapbooks which have been entered in the prize competition, and are now on display. They will be turned over to the convalescent soldiers by Miss Margaret Dunlap, librarian. Miss Dunlap has requested that visitors to the fair will bring a book to be sent to the library at Fort Oglethorpe, or even to the American association may decide.

The child welfare department of the Council of National Defense, of which Mrs. Joe Cliff is president, has a crib with a little figure lying in it. They demonstrate the care of children and distribute literature.

Restroom for Mothers and Children. The Council of National Defense has fitted up a restroom, next to the child welfare exhibit, with a little bed, rocking chair and things necessary for the comfort of the mothers and children. Mrs. Will Hoge, a government nurse, is in charge of the child welfare exhibit, and will willingly answer all questions asked by mothers.

In the food conservation department a neatly attired housekeeper stands beside a lot of canned goods, bags of potatoes, etc. The placard reads: "Have you worked and prepared for winter. You are a slacker if you haven't done likewise."

National League of Women's Service. One of the most attractive booths is that of the Women's Service league. Among the departments represented is the hospital work. Visiting day is presented by means of a figure lying in bed and a member of the league carrying a basket of things. A sewing machine, with a hospital garment underneath the needle, and a beautiful crayon poster, done by Miss Hazel Higgins, are among the things in this booth. Mrs. D. P. Montague, the president, and Mrs. D. F. Beckham, chairman of the hospital committee, are assisted by other members of the league in attending the booth.

Texas Lady Thus Describes

Condition She Was In. Then

Tells How Cardui Relieved Her.

West, Texas—Mrs. J. A. Hunter, of this place, recently made the following statement: "I have known of Cardui for years—when a girl, my mother gave it to me to stop pains ... and it certainly did me a great deal of good. After marriage I was in a run-down state of health and nervous, not at all like my usual self ... so much so that I had to go to bed. I began taking Cardui ... soon I was strong, able to do my work, even my washing. I have been well since ... I can recommend Cardui and gladly do so ... Whenever I overwork and feel tired, draggy, worn-out, I take a few doses of Cardui. It strengthens me, gives me an appetite, seems to strengthen my back, and I soon feel like going to work again. I think all women should keep and use Cardui. It is splendid."

If you are suffering from any of the symptoms Mrs. Hunter mentions, try Cardui, the woman's tonic.

It is for over 40 years, Cardui has saved thousands of women.

Cardui is composed of mild, medicinal vegetable ingredients, acknowledged by standard medical writers to be beneficial in many female disorders. Write to the drug store, and they will send you a bottle of Cardui today, at your drug store.

CAPT. CARL WHITE WRITES

Now On Way to Front—Glimpses of England and France.

Capt. Carl White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl White, who is in France with the 317th field artillery, writes:

"I have certainly had many experiences that will live long in my memory. What I saw of England certainly was a wonderful sight. Green fields and thick, well cultivated grass everywhere. It looks like a large, well-kept estate of some multi-millionaire. I was very much impressed. The towns are rather peculiar in that there are no tall buildings and only narrow zigzagging streets. The people are exceedingly friendly and polite and gentle as can be. From what I saw of it, however, it is a nation of men. All Englishmen are well dressed and healthy looking, while the women are not pretty and do not dress well. However, I saw England in war times. We had just arrived in France when while marching from where we disembarked

I was met and presented with a large bouquet of flowers by the lord mayor of some town in France.

"I have not had a chance as yet to see anything of the country or people.

We are at present in a rest camp and are expecting to move again any minute. We are all very anxious to go to the front lines. You can't imagine what a sight this is for my boys from the mountains of North Carolina, most of whom have never been out of the state except to go to Camp Jackson. As far as that goes, though, it is just as much of a sight to me."

CURTIS HOLMES FLYING

Although he finds life at the aviation camp near San Antonio, Tex., free from monotony, Curtis Holmes, impatient to "cross the pond" and get into the "big show over there." He is fast filling the requirements for service in the Christian Science Sunday school forms a neat exhibit of clothing made for the children of the devastated countries.

An interesting exhibit is that of a bedroom made by Mrs. C. T. Mayer, of St. Elmo, thirty years ago in Paris,

France, which contains one and one-fourth pounds of thread.

The fancy work table was laden with choice pieces of embroidery and chochet. They were judged by a committee of efficient judges headed by Miss Eva Chamberlain. Another table was filled with exquisite pieces of lingerie showing any amount of hand work.

Mr. Earl Cook, the general chairman of the woman's building, with a corps of assistants, was busy all day

Sunday getting things in readiness for the opening Monday morning.

LEAGUE OFFICERS INSTALLED

Installation of officers of the Epworth league of the First Methodist church took place Sunday evening at the regular league service. Dr. W. F.

Smith was in charge. The newly appointed officers are: Miss May Seal, president; Miss Dorothy Guest, first vice-president; Miss Nina Hall, second vice-president; Miss Josephine Ehrmann, third vice-president; Miss Catherine Ashmore, fourth vice-president; Graham Owen, secretary; Miss

Ethel Mitchell, treasurer; Miss Annie

Ashmore, pianist.

SERVICE FLAG FOR TYNER.

Patriotic Meeting Will Be Held at the School Oct. 13.

The patriotic meeting which was to have been held Sunday afternoon at the Tyner High school has been postponed until Sunday, Oct. 13. A special feature of the program will be the dedication of a community service flag.

A meeting in the interest of the fourth liberty loan campaign will be held at the high school Sunday afternoon, Oct. 6.

DRAMA LEAGUE TO MEET OCT. 9.

Mrs. F. M. Bristol announces that the Drama league department of the Woman's club will hold its first meeting Wednesday, Oct. 9, at 19 o'clock in the faculty room of the Chattanooga university. This meeting has been postponed one week on account of the Chattanooga district fair.

The Parent-Teachers' association of the Second District school will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the school building.

The senior branch of the Judge Howell Tatum chapter, Children of the Revolution, will meet Saturday afternoon at 2:30 with Miss Eulalie Riggs at her home in Highland Park.

Sewing Circle With

Much Whispering

We Are All Greatly Indebted to Those Who Tell Their Experiences.

Before the arrival of the work there is much to talk about. The comfort of the expectant mother is the chief topic, and there is sure to be someone who has used or knows of that splendid external help—Mother's Friend.

Nausea, vomiting, bearing-down and stretching pains and other symptoms so familiar to many women are among the dreared experiences thousands of mothers say they entirely escape by the use of this famous remedy.

Its influence on the fine network of nerves and ligaments just beneath the skin is wonderful.

By the regular use of Mother's Friend during the period the muscles are made and kept soft and elastic; they expand easily, without strain, when baby is born and the pain and danger at the crisis is natural.

Mother's Friend is for external use only, is sold by all druggists, and should be used with the utmost regularity.

Write to the Bradfield Regulator Co., P.O. Box 174, Lamar, Mo., for a valuable and interesting "Motherhood and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written and will be a splendid little text book for guidance, not only for yourself but will make you helpful to others. And in the meantime it is not too late to get a bottle of Mother's Friend from the drug store, and thus fortify yourself against pain and discomfort. (Adv.)
